Paul Bowers

Bowers was named chairman, president and CEO of Georgia Power in 2011. Georgia Power is the largest electric subsidiary of Southern Company, one of the nation's leading energy providers, and serves 2.5 million customers across the state of Georgia. Being "A Citizen Wherever We Serve" is a core value shared by all 7,000 Georgia Power employees. In 2017, the company, employees and retirees donated more than 147,000 service hours and invested $21 million in Georgia communities. The company has also been recognized as a Most Trusted Brand by Market Strategies International and ranked number one in J.D. Power residential customer satisfaction.

In 2018, Bowers was inducted as a Georgia Trustee by the Governor and the Georgia Historical Society for exemplifying the highest standard of "Not for Self, but for Others" in his life and career. He has also received the American Jewish Committee's National Human Relations Award and has been inducted into the Junior Achievement Business Hall of Fame.

Since joining Southern Company at its electric subsidiary Gulf Power in 1979, Bowers has worked throughout the Southern Company system. Prior to his current role with Georgia Power, he served as chief financial officer of Southern Company, where he was rated by Institutional Investors magazine as one of the industry's Top Three CFOs in America. Bowers is a native of Pensacola, Florida. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of West Florida and a master's degree from Troy University. He is also a Harvard Business School AMP graduate.

"LIVING A LIFE OF PURPOSE"

As a deeply held tenet of his faith and as a personal conviction, Paul Bowers believes his life's purpose is to leave a legacy of service to his fellow citizens, coworkers and family. That purpose, paired with his belief that the defining characteristic paramount to being a good leader is service of others and not service of self, guides Bowers in his role as chairman, president and CEO at Georgia Power. He not only leads the company to provide safe and reliable electricity for millions of Georgians but also its efforts to being a citizen wherever it serves. Because of this daily commitment to improving the quality of life and well-being for communities across the state, it's fitting that he has chosen "Purpose" as his theme for this year's Tribute.

About the Four Pillar Award

The Four Pillar Award is a prestigious leadership award given to an outstanding individual who has served his or her community, region and state. This is the 29th year that the Council for Quality Growth, a not-for-profit trade association that promotes balanced and responsible growth, has paid tribute to such leaders. The Four Pillar Tribute is a unique honor that celebrates the recipient's philanthropic efforts as well as his or her significant contributions to economic development and the region's quality of life. The "Pillars" represent "Quality," "Responsibility," "Vision" and "Integrity," the principles on which the Council was founded.

About the Council

The Council for Quality Growth, a not-for-profit trade association, is the only organization that works every day to ensure the Metro Atlanta region's regulatory environment supports quality growth and development. As the only advocacy organization that operates broadly across the growth and development industry, the Council for Quality Growth brings together and advocates for those who work at the intersection of public policy and private investment, including developers, contractors, engineers, architects, planners, law firms, and banks. We are often engaged by the public sector to advise on regulation that protects communities while continuing to encourage economic development. For more information visit www.councilforqualitygrowth.org.
